GLOUCESTER COUNTY EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICE

We are hosting a recruitment event to supplement our current staff with additional part time, New Jersey certified, emergency medical technicians. Come on out to join our team!

The hiring event is open to all currently certified New Jersey EMTs. Please bring your original EMT and CPR certification cards, as well as your driver's license, and a current, and completed, County of Gloucester employment application with you.

All applicants must successfully complete three pre-employment testing stations in order to sit for an interview and be considered for the position. These stations are a fifty question written examination and two National Registry Psychomotor Skills stations. Applicants must successfully complete each station in order to move on to the next.
